Stewart of New York Says 4 States Will Second His Nomination When Made on Floor

CHICAGO, June 15.—"Roosevelt will be nominated and four states will second his nomination," is the prediction John A. Stewart of New York made today. Stewart is running a close second with Senator Bourne in the race to stampede the convention for Roosevelt and today asserted the chances for the expected explosion.

"We're better than ever," "What state will second the Roosevelt nomination? If I told that, the game might be spoiled," he responded with a laugh. No less than four confidential friends of Hitchcock came to me seeking the same information. They have assured me under no circumstances or conditions would they divulge the secret if I told them. If I did the Taft people would have them abducted or sand-bagged before the convention met."

(By R. H. Hazard, Staff Correspondent United Press.)

CHICAGO, June 15.—Opponents of the anti-injunction proposition asserted at noon today they had persuaded the leaders of the party to eliminate that plank from the platform, even at the risk of bitterly antagonizing the labor forces.

"The plank goes out and will stay out," observed a member of the national committee. "The best interests of the country are opposed to it and the Taft managers have practically acquiesced in the idea. The president will not insist on the plank and if it doesn't, no one else will accept Gompers and his crowd."

During the day scores of delegates were in receipt of telegrams from members of the Manufacturers' association in their own districts, urging them to resist the insertion of any plank of the platform declaring against the use of the injunction.

Roosevelt and Fairbanks?

The Fairbanks boom for the vice presidency is advancing with strides. Following the Indiana caucus this morning, the Hoosier contingent breezed it about that their candidate would not decline second place, if first was denied him. This was seized upon by many as the shortest possible route out of the difficulties now presented by the vice presidential situation. As the delegates arrive the possibility of a Roosevelt stampede is being more and more apparent.

The Roosevelt Stampede.

The third term boomers are more active than they ever have been; and the Taft folk are beginning to have worried looks.

Just how far the allies will support the movement is uncertain. They have been holding preferences all day and the latest story is they are

BITTER FIGHT IS WAGED AGAINST IKE STEPHENSON

COMPROMISE REACHED WHERE BY HE NOMINATES BRUMBER IS LET DOWN GRACEFULLY
JUNIOR SENATOR OPPOSED TO LA FOLLETTE PLANKS
GONE OVER TO STALWARTS

And His Failure to Be Chairman of National Convention Delegation Is the Result

(By A. M. Brayton.)

CHICAGO, June 15.—The fight on Stephenson terminated at 2 o'clock this afternoon in a compromise by which Stephenson will nominate Brumber as chairman of the delegation, thus letting the Marinette man down gracefully. The complete state now is: Col. W. C. Brumber, Milwaukee, chairman of delegation; Congressman Cooper, Racine, committee on resolutions; ex-Secretary of State Walter Houser, Mondovi, committee on credentials; Alfred T. Rogers, Madison, national committeeman.

CHICAGO, June 15.—A sensational fight, scented in Wisconsin headquarters last night, developed today when the caucus of the delegation called for 10 o'clock was suddenly postponed to this afternoon as a result of a fight to deprive Senator Stephenson of the customary honor of being chairman of the delegation, the name of Col. William C. Brumber being offered as a substitute. The ostensible reasons, under cover of which deep hostility to the Marinette man are hidden, are that he lacks the voice to make the necessary announcements from the chair and that Col. Brumber having led the vote for delegates at large by 20,000, is most representative of the Wisconsin public of any man on the delegation.

The fight against the plan at the opening of the caucus was led by Lorenz of Milwaukee, who is said to have urged that the move would alienate the Free Press, owned by "Uncle Ike," and that the move to defeat him was a campaign scheme of the anti-Stephenson men intended to injure the aged junior senator's chances in the coming primary.

A proposition will be made at 3 o'clock that Stephenson be made chairman and Brumber vice chairman the latter to make the announcement.

are looking about for a good spell-binder to place Roosevelt formally before the convention.

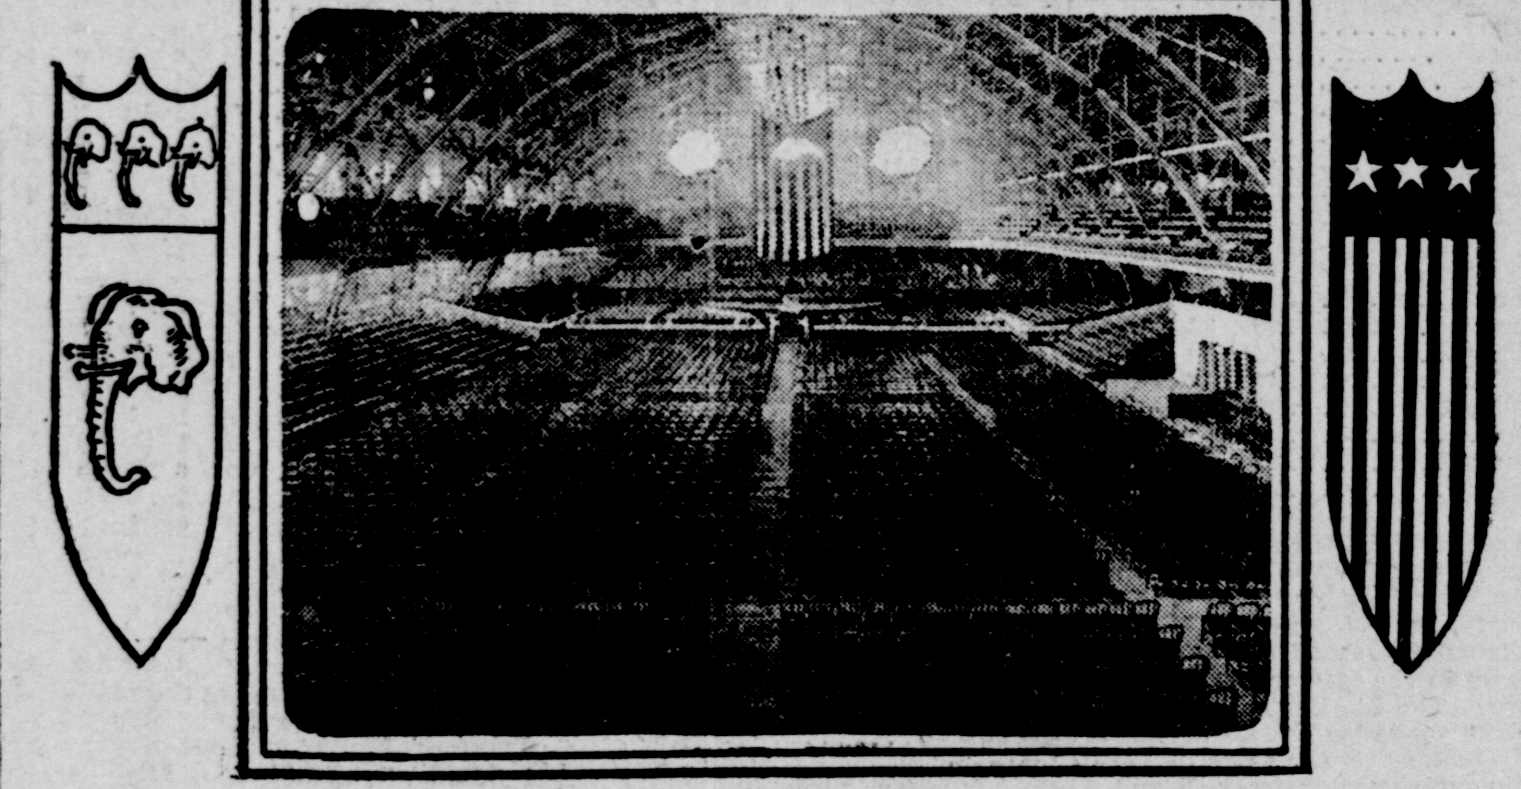

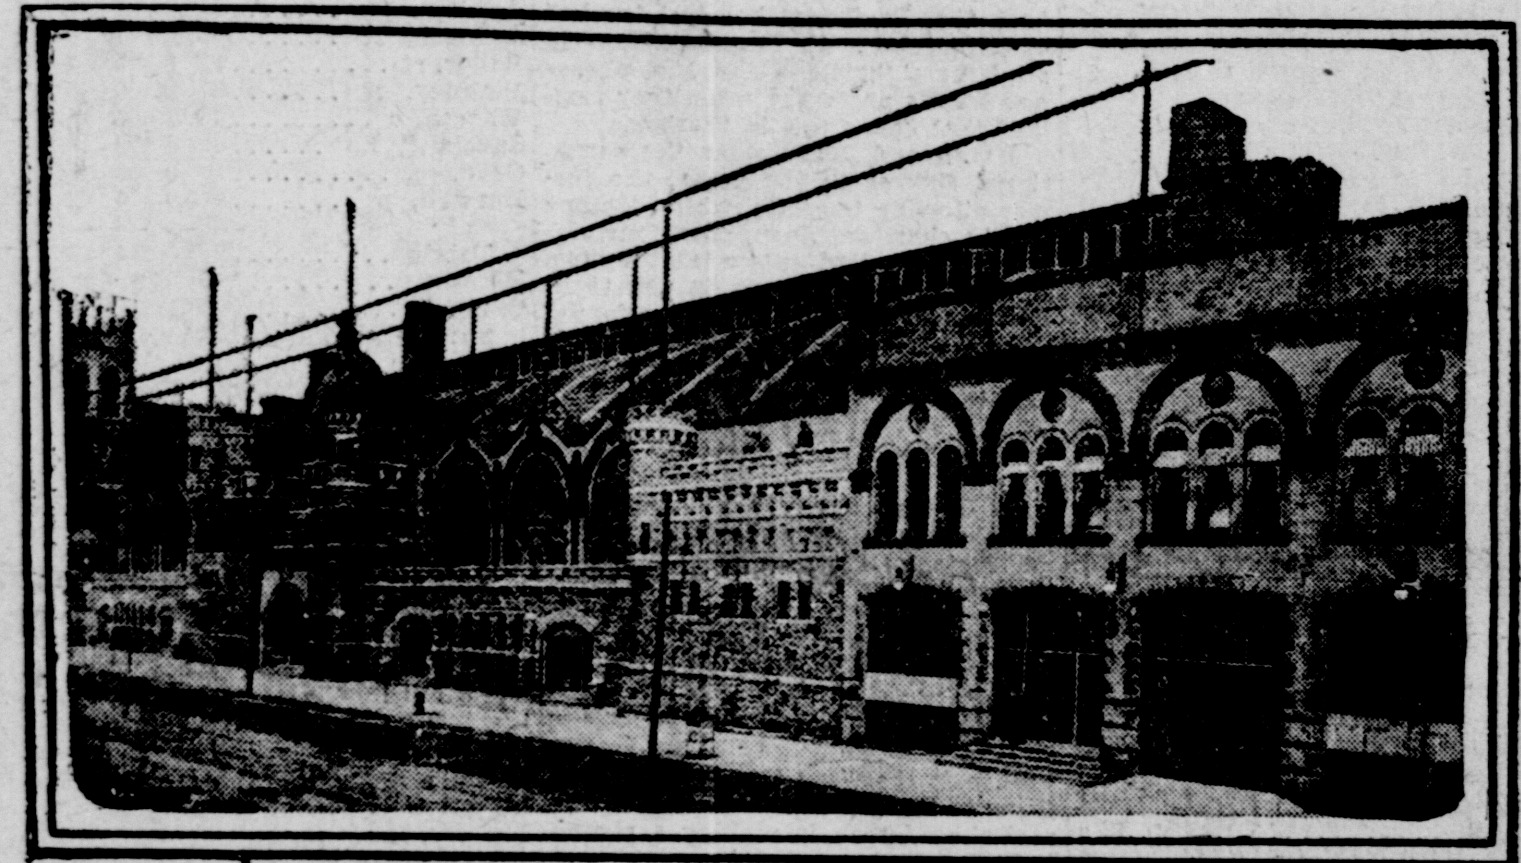

In this connection Senator Borah, of Idaho, has been mentioned, although the delegation from that state is instructed for Taft.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 15.—"Uncle Joe" Cannon is reinforced today in his fight against the anti-injunction feature of the proposed republican platform as framed by Wade Ellis, of Ohio, and O. K'd by Roosevelt and Taft.

Paul Morton appeared on the scene and set about working up sentiment not only against this plank, but against any movement committing the party to further attacks on the railroad interests. Morton and

BIG CHAUTAUQUA OPENS AT THE FAIR GROUNDS TOMORROW

The preparations for the big Chautauqua have nearly been completed and Superintendent Irvine promises to have everything in readiness by 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The big auditorium tent was put up this afternoon at the fair grounds and the chairs and seats will be placed in it tomorrow morning. This canvas holds 2,500 people and the superintendent of the Chautauqua thinks it will be filled in the first day. Governor Hoch of Kansas will be introduced by Mayor Anderson tomorrow afternoon and will speak. The Ernest Seton Indian tent will be put up tomorrow morning.

All the attractions for the week's program are good and include such speakers as Governor Hoch, Captain Hobson, Opie Read, Dr. A. E. Winship, Prof. Miller, Thomas Brooks Fletcher, Dr. Thomas E. Green, Major Cole, Dr. Will, and E. Harold Baynes.

PRESIDENT PREFERS DOLLIVER OR GOV. CUMMINS OF IOWA

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15.—It was learned on good authority today that the White house prefers either Dolliver or Governor Cummins of Iowa for second place on the ticket. Word to this effect has been sent to Chicago and Iowa today.

The decision to place either Dolliver or Cummins on the ticket was reached at a conference which the president and Taft held before noon. They were in communication by long distance with Hitchcock in Chicago who had gotten the views of Senator Long.

FRISCO AROUSED BY ABSENCE OF PLANK

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—Aroused by the report the republican platform will dodge all questions as to the immigration of Chinese and Japanese the Asiatic Exclusion League of Frisco today wired to Chicago demanding the insertion of a plank on that issue. It is declared if the republicans fail to cater thus, the omission will cost Taft thousands of votes west of the Rockies.

LA FOLLETTE WILL FIGHT FOR TARIFF PLANK TOMORROW

HAS THREE PROPOSITIONS HE WANTS IN PLATFORM
TAFTERS TO DISCOMFIT HIM
ARE SAID TO BE WORKING HIS "DOWNFALL"
COOPER TO INTRODUCE THEM
Will Make Oratorical Effort, Assisted by Cochems and Lockney; Stalwarts "All at Sea"

(By A. M. Brayton.)

CHICAGO, June 16.—The "bottling" of "Bob" La Follette is one of the grim jokes in which the irreconcilable forces of the G. O. P.—the allies and the Taft party—have jointly indulged. They have enjoyed it hugely, for "Little Bob" is persona non grata with each of the warring wings. But at last the one chestnut these foes have roasted in common—to mix the metaphor—is looming up as a jolly with a tart humor. The "corked up" Chili sauce from Wisconsin is to be uncorked with a pompadourian phiz when Congressman H. L. Cooper of Racine produces the official corkscrew in the committee on platform.

In addition to the tariff planks covering the physical valuation of railway property and the popular election of United States senators, the La Follette men today are working on the tariff plank, the essence of which is a demand for immediate temporary revision and final revision later, after the report by the representative of the tariff commission to be appointed at the next congress.

Planks Not Made Public.

The proposed planks will not be made public today. Cooper and State Senator Lockney who are with Henry F. Cochems, will aid the Racine man in his oratorical fight for the planks. They say none of them are ready for publication, but stalwart gossip is to the effect that La Follette men cannot solve the closely guarded secret as to what the Taft planks will say on the same subjects, and are withholding theirs to prevent the Tafters from revising their planks to take the wind of La Follette's sails. The Tafters are said to be plotting "Bob's" discomfiture if possible.

Physical valuation is the basis of the Wisconsin rate law, and it has been made to stand up there in a way to prove that it is an essential to real railroad legislation and taxation. It is not anticipated by its Wisconsin champions that the plank will find its way into the platform, but it is proposed to keep the Wisconsin republicans on record, with the belief that four years hence the party will be forced to its adoption, just as it will eventually be compelled to adopt the theory of popular elections of United States senators. In support of the prophesy that these things will come, it is pointed out that all the other vital planks which it is conceded will be incorporated in the platform were advocated by Senator La Follette and many of them actually placed in operation by him in his state before any of the Taft men who are responsible for their adoption now had recognized them as legitimate republican doctrine.

Wisconsin the Sensation.

It is an interesting fact that now, as in 1904, Wisconsin is to furnish

SIXTH DISTRICT WINS FIELD MEET

PROF. DONALDSON'S BOYS A CLOSE SECOND

GOOD MATERIAL DEVELOPED

High School Athletic Managers Have Their Eyes on Some of the Eighth Grade Athletes

With the Third district school a close second the Sixth district won the first annual Eighth grade track and field meet Saturday afternoon on the high school athletic field. The meet was decidedly in favor of the Third district boys in the first four events, but after Bedessem ran away with the 300 yard dash the points began to pile up for Prof. Fowler's athletes. This meet uncovered a lot of good material for the high school athletic teams next year and some of those who took part in the Saturday meet showed themselves capable of competing with anything after they had had a little training. The events and place winners are as follows:

50-yard run—First heat: A. Maurer, Third district, first; Bedessem, Sixth district, second. Second heat: E. Schwalbe, Third district, first; C. Coulam, Second district, second. Third heat: Gates, Sixth district, first; A. Goldberg, Third district, second. Semi-finals: Bedessem won. Final won by A. Maurer, first; Bedessem, second, and Schwalbe, third. Time, 54.5.

Standing broad jump—A. Olberg, Third district, first, distance 8 feet, 6 3/4 inches; second, Hackett, Sixth district, distance, 8 feet, 1 1/2 inch; L. Young, Third district, distance 7 feet, 10 1/4 inches.

Pole vault—Won by Hackett, Sixth district, distance, 7 feet; Arens, Sixth district, second, 6 feet, 9 inches; E. Fox, Third district, third, 6 feet, 8 inches.

300-yard run—First heat: Bedessem, Sixth district, won; A. Maurer, Third district, second. Second heat: Rupp, Sixth district, won; E. Fox, Third district, second. Third heat: Renner, Third district, won; Otto Arnsen, Seventh district, second. Fourth heat: Webb, Second district, won; Strum, Second district, second. Shot put—A. Hayes, Third district, won; distance, 25 feet, 2 1/2 inches; Eller, Sixth district, second, 24 feet, 11 3/4 inches; Kolb, Second district, third, 22 feet, 2 inches. This event was played off without the double step.

Running broad jump—Peterson, Sixth district, won, distance, 16 feet, 11 1/2 inches; Virse, Sixth district, second, 14 feet, 10 inches; L. Young, Third district, third, 14 feet, 4 1/2 inches.

Eleven straight is the record made by the Chicago White Sox after defeating New York yesterday by the score of 5 to 4. Besides bringing them from the second division it has put them in the lead in a substantial manner. The St. Louis Browns led to defeat yesterday in the hands of the Bostonians by the score of 10 to 4. Philadelphia won from Detroit 5 to 3.

Dudham, the Indianapolis twirler, proved himself a hero yesterday in the eyes of the Milwaukee fans when he pitched a double-header, shutting out the Brewers in both contests, allowing eleven scattered hits in both games. Schnellberg was the opposing pitcher in the first game and was shut out after allowing but four hits. Curtis was in the box the second game. Columbus defeated the Saints, Louisville won from Kansas City, and Minneapolis defeated Toledo 4 to 2.

Yesterday was an off day in the National league. In Saturday's game Konechty at bat three times got one three bagger.

Freeport, 2, La Crosse, 1, was the awful dispatch that came to the La Crosse fans last evening. When it was chalked up on the bulletin boards about the city there was a hurry to have the message corrected on the grounds that Jones was in the box for the Colts and that the message was repeated in Friday's game. The dispatch was ordered repeated, and the same awful message came back that La Crosse had lost the last of the series with the champions in a pitchers' battle. The last phrase was hardly necessary when they realized that Jones was in the box.

Rouse and Jones were the sensational figures in the game, the former allowing two hits, while Scrapy let the champions down with four singles that resulted in two fateful runs. The first offense came in the third inning when the Pretzels hot footed around the bases for the opening tally. In the notorious fifth La Crosse tied the score with a two bagger by Becker and it then looked like a deadlock session, but in the eighth inning the Pretzels found a horse and shoe that resulted in a run and snatched a victory from Hawley's men before they were aware of what was going on. Not an error was chalked against the locals, but somehow they lost and the only thing now left for the Colts is to take the entire series from the Hotentots. This is essential, as they took two of the series in La Crosse and losing two to Freeport they must get the next three to remain in the first division, as Bobby Lynch is making a strong fight for that coveted top place and if he once gets his bunch there it will be a puzzle to get them out. The Colts left last night for Rockford, and will open a series of three games with the Reds before returning home to take revenge on the Canners.

When You Buy Beans Look at the Label

The Government Pure Food Law specifically prohibits deceptive statements on food labels. When a label says "Baked" it means that the product is baked—baked in an oven. If the word baked does not appear you take chances on some other method of cooking. Your safeguard, then, lies in looking at the label when you buy beans.

HEINZ Baked Beans

are baked just like bread, or biscuit—in a dry-heated oven. They are baked mealy and mellow, baked to a golden brown—tempting in aroma and flavor, immeasurably beyond soggy, steamed or boiled beans.

The HEINZ Improved Tin—solderless and sterilized—brings them to you in all their original goodness.

his ballot and casts his vote. It takes money to advertise. The other candidate, the "unknown" candidate, has not been fattened from the public purse for a term of years, and a limited income may prevent him bringing his name and his qualifications before the public. So the voter is unfamiliar with his name or his virtues, and public indifference—which doesn't care to waste time upon an investigation of merits—casts its vote for the familiar name of the "perpetual."

That is why the "perpetual" brazenly asserts his determination to "keep it as long as he can hang to it," and that is why his bump of self-esteem is enlarged to the point of offensive inflammation, and it is why he reaches that point of egotism where he believes he is doing the public a favor to "accept" it—this "perpetual."

This public indifference, and this power of suggestion, is why the country is dominated by life-sapping trusts, it is why the state of Pennsylvania has robbed of its money in the construction of a new capitol, and it is why the man who steals a million is regarded as a financier and may enjoy the profits of his stealing in freedom, while the man who steals a loaf of bread languishes in jail.

Since public indifference permits a political "growth" to thrive upon public office indefinitely, and since the primary election law's chief result seems to have been to permit perpetual candidacies and to accentuate the opportunity for display of this public indifference, it would seem that public indifference is to blame.

And it would seem to be up to the public to awake from this Rip Van Winkle sleep and do a little tree-trimming.

THE OREGON WINNER

The Hon. George Earle Chamberlain, a Mississippian, educated in Virginia and transplanted to Oregon in 1876, has a genius for popularity. He had been in the northwest only four years when he was elected to the Oregon legislature. He was also a district attorney in the '80's. In 1891 he was appointed and in 1892 elected attorney general.

In 1900 he was again elected a district attorney, and before his term was out he was elected governor. Re-elected in 1907, he is now the choice of a majority of the voters of his state to succeed the Hon. Charles W. Fulton as a senator in congress. Mr. Fulton's term expires March 3, 1909. Mr. Chamberlain's term as governor ends in 1911. Surely a fortunate politician, who can't serve his time in one office before another is thrust upon him.

Gov. Chamberlain is said to have much of Clay's and Blaine's extraordinary gift of remembering names and faces, a gift of rather more use than any other to a politician in this world of vanity. Yet he is no mere "mixer" and "handshaker." He is a man of cultivation, a sound lawyer.

As governor he has introduced reform and order in the state institutions. His appointments have usually been excellent, he believes, and his not infrequent choice of republicans for office has strengthened him among the friends of "non-partisanship," a theory which has helped him a good deal in a republican state, and has perhaps humbugged, not to say, bunked, the republican brethren there. On the whole, Gov. Chamberlain seems a winning candidate in every sense, and so can hope nothing from the national democracy which loves to lose.—New York Sun.

SENATOR GORE.

(New York Globe.)

The blind senator from Oklahoma has seen more than some of his colleagues in the senate. Having eyes, they see not, and lack of vision makes them lack in understanding or decision of courage. It is the inner eye, the eye to penetrate the possibilities of parliamentary method and understand the results both of action and inaction in a legislature, that is needed above many things in a legislator.

When Senator Gore and Senator Owen drew slips last fall to see who should have the six-year and who the one-year term the one-year slip fell to Senator Gore. But that was not as bad as it seems. It was probably an assurance of a seven-year period of service. For thus far no one has appeared to dispute his candidacy, and little time is left for any one to do so. The primaries are to be held Aug. 4, and all candidates who would have their names placed on the ballots must file their applications forty days before that date.

In the closing days of congress, Mr. Gore literally compelled the esteem of the senate. The admiration in which he had been held previous thereto was no doubt, alloyed with sympathy. But the physical infirmity was then forgotten, the trained mind and memory overcame all compromise of admiration. The nation desires this man in the senate, desires his help and guidance—his ability to teach other men to see.

THE LIMIT OF ENDURANCE.

(Providence Bulletin.)

Senator La Follette is the first of the presidential candidates to relieve the stress. His fight, he now admits, is merely by way of keeping him in line for 1912, apparently on the assumption that whoever gets it this year will find one term enough.

SPOTLIGHTS

"Across the Desert," the American comedy drama dealing with life in the far west, will be presented by the Van Dyke & Eaton company Monday and Tuesday nights. The play includes such characters as the bawdy boy and girl, the Indian, negro, Chinaman, Mexican cowboy, sister of charity, the man who has a greed for gold, the man who has been ruined by drink, and the very bad man. All are woven together to talk and act as they naturally would in every day life, forming a most pleasing and entertaining play.

PROOF OF DIVINITY AND IMMORTALITY.

(Milwaukee Free Press.)

Because it is a matter of common knowledge that thinking among animals and men is always connected with the brain, and seems in some way to be a function of that organ, it has been somewhat too hastily argued by some thinkers that without a brain there can be no thought, and hence, that conscious life ceases with the death of the body. But, says the Christian Register, if we make a thorough-going application of such an argument, we must infer that there can be no thought anywhere corresponding to what we call thoughts, where there are no brains to be the organs of them. Hence this argument, based upon physical conditions and local provisions for the conduct of human life, comes squarely into conflict with that other argument, for the existence of God, drawn from proofs of intelligence in the universe of which we are a part.

NO PLACE FOR DOGS.

(Japan Chronicle.)

Is it impossible in Japan to keep a good dog? I have twice had my dogs disappear in a seemingly miraculous way.

As I am well aware that there is a great demand for dog skins, especially those of young dogs, we have been careful in having our dog watched; nevertheless, he disappeared this morning.

Almost every foreigner has lost a dog or dogs, and even a sea captain who was three days on shore had his dog poisoned the first day he put his feet on land.

The Questions Were Pertinent

Heinrich Conried, the retiring manager of the Metropolitan opera house, said at a recent dinner in New York:

"Yes, in that crisis I make a mistake—as queer a mistake as one that was made last week by a friend of mine—a Lutheran clergyman."

"The clergyman had advertised for a butler, and the next morning after breakfast a well dressed, clean-shaven young man in black was ushered into his study."

"Name, please?" said the clergyman.

"Hilary Arbuthnot, sir."

"Age?"

"Twenty-eight."

"What work have you been accustomed to?"

"I am a lawyer, sir."

"The clergyman started. This was odd. However, as he knew, many were called in the law, few chosen."

"But," he said, "do you understand the conduct of a household?"

"In a general way, yes" murmured the applicant.

"Can you carve?"

"Yes."

"Wash glass and silver?"

"I—er—think so." The young man seemed embarrassed. He frowned and blushed. Just then the clergyman's wife entered.

"Are you married?" was the first question.

"That," said the young man, "was what I called to see your husband about, madam. I desire to know if he can make it convenient to officiate at my wedding at noon next Thursday week." — New York Times.

THOMAS DETROIT VICTORIES

Takes Four Firsts and Three Seconds

in Dead Horse Hill Climb

Local followers of the season's results in automobile hill climbing are discussing the remarkable performance of the Thomas Detroit Forty in the Dead Horse Hill Climb at Worcester, Mass., a few days ago.

In that contest the Thomas Detroit Forty was awarded four first and three seconds, equalling the time made by all the stock cars selling for $6,000 and under.

The Thomas Detroit led in the first, fifth, twelfth and thirteenth events. In the second event it followed a Stearns by one-fifth of a second. In the third event it tied with a Corbin. In the 13th event the Thomas Detroit was the winner of both first and second places, the second car following the first by one and one-sixth seconds.

Great interest was shown in this hill climb, as all the contestants were cars of national reputation. The contests brought out a large number of eastern motorists.

One Point in His Favor

A witty priest was once visiting a "self made" millionaire, who took him to see his seldom-used library.

"There," said the millionaire, pointing to a table covered with books, "these are my best friends."

"Ah," replied the wit, as he glanced at the leaves, "I'm glad you don't cut them!" — Saved Heart Review.

JAMES R. HOME

Lawyer, Locomotive Engineer, Sated for Counsel for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

GALESBURG, Ill., June 15. — James R. Home, lawyer and engineer on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway, who is believed to have a good chance to become counsel for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, has long been a resident of Galesburg, and has a very extended acquaintance throughout Illinois. Born and educated in Aurora, he went to Galesburg and took a position as an apprentice in the Burlington machine shops. In 1888 he was given an engineer's run, and since that time has been recognized as one of the most competent engineers in the employ of the company.

For seven years he ran the fast mail. For number of years he has run the "Elm" and Kansas City flyer, and has made records as a speed-maker. Meanwhile he took a keen interest in politics and studied law. In June, 1899, he was admitted to practice in both the state and the United States courts. Since then he has acquired a large and paying practice. He has made railroad and insurance law his specialty.

THE LOVE OF CHILDREN.

(Milwaukee Journal.)

A distinguished Massachusetts jurist, in granting a divorce to a husband, gave the two small children to the erring wife. The unusual decision was explained in these words:

"A mother's love survives the deepest degradation of which the female nature is capable, and it is capable of a lower state than man's nature. When a woman comes into my court claiming the custody of her child I always grant it. She may be a bad woman and yet a good mother, at least the best, if not the only, mother the child can have. In this way I have at times saved both mother and child."

Children bring out the best that is in us, particularly in the mother. Fresh from the hands of their Creator, pure and sweet in their innocence and trust and helplessness, not contaminated by sinful life, they bloom about us like flowers from paradise.

A wise man has told us that in our old age, when the frame weakens and the faculties decay, the mind returns to its early youth and then its childhood. We pass from life as we entered, and the mother's teaching goes with us to that other life.

Deep and strong as is the lesson of love taught us by the children, there is yet a more important one taught in the way of faith. When Christ says that of such is the kingdom of heaven, He refers to that innocence, that confidence, that faith, which are traits of childhood before contact with earth brings sin, suspicion, disappointment and all the ills that sad experience entails.

What is learning but doubt? What can science give us but disbelief? When one dies the world begins; when one dies the world ends; and sage and seer indeed is he who can pass out as pure as he came in.

The wisest and best among us, as well as the lowest and vilest, may learn our highest lesson from the little ones. Their tender touch attunes our heartstrings to the purest of the emotions.

And when, in those fateful hours between midnight and morn, when life's tide ebbs, when the little breath becomes more feeble, when the tiny pulse slips away from all feeling, when at last the precious one is still, and the long-preserved quiet of the house is broken with agonizing cries, then a sorrow is burned into one that no lapse of time can soften or efface.

Years and years after, that keen heartache will return as one looks through tears at a lock of sunny hair or an old, half-worn little shoe.

One's earthly possession—one's real estate that is priceless and can never be sold or mortgaged or given away—is a little narrow grave.

The dear form molds to dust and disappears but it never leaves the heart. The babe, with all its sacred lessons of love and innocence, is one's precious babe through life—perhaps forever.

Side Lights on History.

Young Miss Liberty, disgusted, climbed out of her cradle.

"It isn't a cradle, at all!" she exclaimed. "It's nothing but a crib!"

his love for her. She never suspected that he had been her father's enemy—the man who had been the instigator of the dastardly outrage—until on the previous evening, her father had, in confidence, told her the truth, and added that, because of his re-appearance, they had to fly. She dared not tell him they had met, but she had made Marion her confidante. It was the story of the bomb outrage that had held Marion horrified.

Charlie, when he had listened open-mouthed to the explanation of his well-beloved, cried:

"The assassin! And he dared to speak to you of love!"

"He is dead, dearest," answered the girl, quietly stroking his hair from his brow. "Let us forgive him—and forget."

For answer he took her again in his arms, and kissed her tenderly upon the lips.

Three days later.

The coroner's jury had returned a verdict of "suicide while of unsound mind," and the body of Jean Adam had, with the undertaker's assistance, been buried in Highgate Cemetery in the actual coffin which had been so long prepared for him.

It was surely a weird revenge of old Sam's.

But the whole occurrence was a grim and terrible repayment of an old debt.

In the fading twilight of the wet and gloomy day on which the dead man's body was without a single follower, committed to the grave, Rolfe and Barclay were seated with the millionaire in the familiar library in Park Lane.

Old Sam had been making explanations similar to those made by the Doctor down at Arundel. Suddenly he said, looking from one to the other:

"And now I have to apologize to you both. In arranging the disappearance of my dear friend the Doctor, I contrived to mislead you, in order to add mystery to the occurrence. I knew, Rolfe, you lost your train at Charing Cross that night; that you did not wish to be seen off by your sister Marion because you had—in my interests—quarrelled with Adam and had made murderous threats against him—perhaps unwisely. These threats, however, you believed Adam had told to Barclay, hence your fear of the last named later on. I arranged that a man should be present at Cromwell Road in clothes resembling your own, that a garment should be placed in the house with a bloodstain upon it, and that the Doctor's safe should be blown open as though thieves had visited the place after the removal of the furniture. I knew from the Doctor that you, Barclay, would go there that evening, and my object was to puzzle and mislead you, at the same time believing that, having suspicions of your friend Rolfe, you would not go to the police. Again, in order to test Rolfe's devotion to myself, I suggested that the honour of the woman he loved, if sacrificed, could save me. I made this suggestion in order to put Rolfe off the scent."

"Then it was all your own doing?" Max cried, in surprise.

"Entirely," was the old man's response. "In the interests of myself, as well as of both of you. Adam believed that you were aware of his secret

J. V. Winters, representing the C. B. & Q. Gun club, won the amateur championship of Wisconsin and upper Michigan in the shoot which is being held at Milwaukee. Mr. Winters' score yesterday was 167 out of 180, but owing to the adverse conditions it was hard to make a good score.

The score yesterday at the regular shoot held by the club at their park at French Island is as follows:

Target	Broke
Heffner	50
Clements	50
Fladlin	50
Gohres	50
Rose	50
W. Roth	50
Rodell	50
Torreson	50

Miller	25
R. Roth	25
Culp	25

Owing to the high wind it was impossible to make high scores, the right quarter targets flying at a high speed.

Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Topperwein will give an exhibition shoot under the auspices of the club. The amateurs of the city will also shoot for a cup which will go to the highest score. A large crowd will be out to see the Topperweins who are world's champions, do some fancy shooting.

"KICKED" CARS JUST MEET TROLLEY

What might have been a terrible accident was narrowly averted Sunday noon when a southbound car crossed the tracks on the Mill street crossing and a bunch of cars were kicked across the street car track barely grazing the rear of the car.

The street car was sent forward at full speed by the motorman, who was cool enough to keep his presence of mind in a moment of danger. There were over 30 people on the car whose hair stood on end for a moment and who heaved a sigh of relief as they reached the other side of the track in safety.

MINNESOTA AND THE NORTHWEST

ANGEREDAT REBUFS ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

MINNESOTA FOOTBALL CAPTAIN SERIOUSLY INJURED

JEALOUS; SHOOTS HIMSELF

Tragedy Is Enacted on Streets in Jackson, Minn.—Prefers Barber to Athlete

JACKSON, Minn., June 15.—Angered at the refusal of his attentions by the young woman with whom he formerly had kept company and at her receiving the advances of a young barber of this city, Ney Dunne, captain of the University of Minnesota football team, shot himself on a public street here early Saturday morning in the presence of the young woman and her escort. He is said to have little chance of recovery. He expected to graduate from the state law school next year.

Dunne came to his home here recently after completing his year's work at the university and had been living at the home of his father, former Sheriff Dunne. Friday afternoon he acted as umpire at a local ball game and Friday evening attended a dance, seeming to be in the best of spirits.

Advances Were Rejected.

During the evening he paid some attention to the young woman, but was met with rebuffs, and finally learned that a young barber of this city was to escort the girl home after the dance. Dunne and a companion followed the couple, and when they were passing along the principal street at about 2 o'clock Saturday morning he called to them to turn around. They ignored his call and he repeated it, adding that he did not want to shoot them in the dark.

When he made this threat, the girl started to run. Her companion called after her, but did not turn around, and Dunne drew a revolver and shot himself in the left breast. The ball struck a rib just over the heart and was deflected downward, lodging just under the skin at the back.

INDIAN GIRL IS SUICIDE.

WATERLOO, Ia., June 15.—Osh-tah-o-sahque, an Indian girl of seventeen years, living on the Musquakie reservation in Tama county, committed suicide at her home by shooting herself in the forehead with a revolver.

The girl had been forbidden to attend the wolf dances at the summer lodge of Ka-pa-you, because of her infatuation for a young Indian whom her father, Pem-ah-quah, did not like. She was left in care of an aged uncle and his squaw, and while they were asleep she blew out her brains. Beside her was found a bottle of whisky. She had used the fire water liberally before committing the deed.

It is unusual for an Indian to commit suicide, and a great jamboree of dances is being held on the reservation on account of the tragedy.

FOUR SWEEP OVER DAM IN BOAT

TWO DROWN, WHILE THEIR BROTHERS ARE RESCUED

ACCIDENT AT DES MOINES

Engine in Launch Balks and Accident Results—Negro Saves One Victim

DES MOINES, Ia., June 15.—Losing control of their launch when the engine balked, four Des Moines men were swept over the Interstate dam at 3:30 Saturday afternoon. Two of them, Edward Ebersoll and William Jennings, were drowned. Their bodies have not been recovered. William Ebersoll and Earl Jennings, brothers of the two who were lost, were dragged from the river by a crowd of boatmen and fishermen below the dam.

A negro, Grant Ferguson, proved himself a hero by diving into the river and saving one of the two just as he was going down for the last time. Life boats manned by the police are searching for the two bodies.

The boat and its four occupants went over the dam, shooting down like a rocket with three of the boys clinging to their seats and with Earl Jennings working desperately at his engine.

The boat and its occupants were hurled beneath the water and carried under the surface a considerable distance before coming up. All four are prominent young men.

GIGANTIC SKULL IS FOUND IN IOWA TOWN

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., June 15.—A gigantic skull, supposed to be a part of the skeleton of some prehistoric animal, was found Saturday on the banks of the Des Moines river, about three miles from Ogdan. The skull was found by Frank Poerter and S. P. Clark, who, while walking along the bank of the river, came to a place that had caved in and had fallen into the river. Exposed to view in the earth about sixteen feet deep and near the surface of the river was the skull. The skull is similar to that of a buffalo, except that it is of exceptional size. It measured twenty-two and one-half inches between the horns, and was proportionately long from base to snout. It was in an excellent state of preservation.

NOT WIFE? THEN WANTS BACK PAY

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., June 15.—After living with Elias W. Pegg as his wife for twenty-seven years and then learning through a decision of the supreme court that she was not his wife, but only his employee, Mrs. Margaret Asher Saturday filed a claim of $10,500 against Pegg's estate.

This claim is for wages as housekeeper during the period of twenty-one years of supposed wifehood.

In 1885, Pegg and Mrs. Asher entered into the following agreement: "The undersigned make and enter into the following agreement and contract: Elias W. Pegg this day takes Margaret Asher to be his legal wife and agrees to live with her as such. Margaret Asher this day takes Elias W. Pegg to be her legal husband and agrees to live with him as such during life. Signed, Elias W. Pegg, Margaret Asher."

Suit was brought after Pegg's death by relatives who sought possession of the property, and the case was carried to the supreme court, which decided that Mrs. Asher was not the legal wife of Pegg, but only his employee.

TO PRESIDE AT CAPITOL.

PIERRE, S. D., June 15.—On account of the annual session of the Masonic grand lodge occurring before the date of laying the cornerstone of the new state capital, J. J. Davenport, the newly elected grand master, has been selected to preside at the ceremony, instead of W. E. Milligan, who was first selected. He has invited the Deadwood Commandery of Knights Templar to act as his escort, and it is expected that he will be accompanied also by delegations from the commanderies of Lead, Rapid City and Hot Springs. A large attendance at the ceremony is expected from all parts of the state.

KILLS SELF IN HOTEL.

WAHPETON, N. D., June 15.—Peter Mathieu, about 40 years old, committed suicide in his room in the Commercial hotel here some time Saturday night by hanging himself to the bed post. He was found Sunday morning by the hotel clerk and evidently had committed the deed early last evening.

Little is known of the man here. He is said to have a brother at International Falls and another at Verona, S. D. A brother-in-law also has been located at Kensal, this state.

HILLVIEW PLACE READY FOR SALE

BEAUTIFUL TRACT PLATTED INTO CITY LOTS

CHARMING COUNTRY CENTER

Golf Links, Myrick Park, Beautiful Drives and Easy Access Makes Property Most Desirable

The platting of the Hillview place and the donation of the addition to Myrick park by Manning and Wheldon, a real estate firm of Iowa, marks an era in the real estate history of the city of La Crosse. Besides being the most beautiful section as far as scenery and location are concerned the addition is so situated on the electric car line as to make it a five minute ride from the heart of the business district of the city. It is the closest of any desirable property additions in La Crosse.

The property was purchased of Mr. Easton for a large sum by Manning and Wheldon. Mr. Easton spent in the neighborhood of $30,000 on this property, and it will be remembered that it was here that he had his race track and trotting horses. This real estate firm deals only in city additions and in platting and in their estimation Hillview place is the most desirable they have dealt with. The property is bounded on the west by Myrick Park and on the east by the Schaghticoke golf links and the Loscy boulevard as extended. La Crosse street with the car line bounds it on the south and it is bordered on the north by the proposed Park drive. All the land north of this drive amounting to about 13 acres, has been donated to the city for park purposes and will form an addition to Myrick park. The Park drive will connect Myrick park with Loscy boulevard.

A committee composed of Mayor Anderson, Councilman Goddard, chairman of the street committee, Keller of the finance committee, Alderman Bartl, and City Engineer Bradish, examined the grounds and they all expressed themselves as pleased with the place. They will recommend to the city council that the park donation be accepted.

The other drive which has been proposed will be along the lower side of the high land and will connect directly with the present lower drive through the cemetery and Myrick park. This drive is lined with trees and when shrubs and plants are planted there it will make one of the prettiest drives in the city.

The other part of the Easton land between Twenty-first street and the Loscy boulevard and between La Crosse street and the Park drive has been platted by the firm and the lots will be thrown open for sale at popular prices. It is estimated that two hundred lots can be made from the territory each having a front of fifty feet and a depth of 125 to 150 feet. The owners with a corps of engineers in charge of Mr. Allen have been pushing the work for the last ten days and in a few days more the lots will be ready for sale.

Sale Begins Soon.

The sale will begin immediately after midnight Friday. All the lots will be placed on sale at the same time on a popular plan. In the front of each lot will be placed a white stake with two placards on it. If the person wishes to purchase the lot he will tear off the card with the number of the lot on it and bring it to the office in the house on the grounds where the sale will be recorded and the terms agreed upon.

Location is Ideal.

The location is one of the most ideal in La Crosse lying as it does, in the extreme eastern portion of the city and on the carline to the golf links. The view of Granddad bluff and Miller's bluff and the golf links makes the place all the more desirable.

The proposed plan to build a double driveway through the new park and along the side of the Hillview property met with the highest approval of the inspection committee and plans are already being made for the beautification of the place.

The drive from La Crosse street through the Oak Grove cemetery, Myrick and Hillview parks will make the city justifying in boasting of the finest parks and driveways in the upper Mississippi valley.

The new public grounds will be placed in the hands of the park commission and the work of making the drives and beautifying the surroundings in general will be commenced at once.

LABOR FORCED TO BE DEFIED IN THE CHICAGO PLATFORM

his friends are doing their best to bring about an understanding that will result in a compromise on what is believed to be the "dangerous planks." They are telling the delegates just as much strength will be gained by ignoring these subjects altogether, and hiding the omission in the extravagance of their praise of the Roosevelt regime.

Labor must, of course, be given up to keep it in line, but it is argued this must be accomplished by paying the toilers a compliment or two, and pledging the party to undying loyalty to their eight hour day, and declaring that the bars which now keep out the Mongolian coolies will never be lowered.

The executive council of the American Federation of Labor is still in session. It is quite likely it will shortly make an announcement on the anti-injunction and anti-trust planks. This will demand the party to declare squarely for the enactment of a law which will allow working men to organize and fight battles against capital, without being liable to punishment for contempt or prosecution as a "trust."

If the convention refuses to put these planks in the platform, the Federation of Labor will declare war to the knife, and will turn the laborers' votes for the democratic party.

Gompers declares he is not in the least disturbed by Cannon's presence here to lead the fight against him.

Looks Like Fairbanks.

Today, more than ever, it looks as though Fairbanks would be drafted for second place on the national ticket. In all events the developments of the last 24 hours seem to trend in that direction. Little is heard about it in public and in the corridors, but behind the scenes of effective work is being done. The name most in people's mouth for vice president undoubtedly is that of Dolliver of Iowa, and were it not for the political conditions of the state, which have been described by some as productive of national complications, there is little doubt, he would be selected.

The boom for Congressman Sherman of New York also received an impetus today. A lot of Taft people, however, fail to see good politics in placing a New York man on the ticket.

Convention Side-lights.

"Secretary Taft is to be nominated; that is sure, isn't it? Well, I'm glad." This was Alice Roosevelt Longworth's first remark when she arrived early today, stepping from a Cincinnati train with her husband, "Nick." The Longworths are the guests of the McCormicks. They will attend the convention, using the seats from the president's allotment.

George Ade is personally a great admirer of Taft, and believes the latter will just fill the presidential chair. Like a dutiful Hoosier, however, he will cast his first ballot for Fairbanks. Caught in the midst of a crowd of Hoosier war horses today, Ade was asked who he favored for second place. "Why, Taft, of course," responded Ade, as guilelessly as if he unconsciously had launched a brand new boom.

Sunday's Convention News.

Development of strength among conservatives favoring Fairbanks for vice president. Thus fight for second place narrows down to Dolliver, Fairbanks and Representative Sherman of New York. Senator Borah of Idaho says Dolliver probably will not accept vice presidential nomination, and begins to talk Fairbanks.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon arrives unexpectedly from Danville, goes into conference with Dalzell and Payne; said to be tariff revision, postal savings and anti-injunction planks.

Criticism of Senator Burrows' forthcoming "keynote" speech, which is said to lack a strong enough endorsement of Roosevelt administration.

Majority of state delegations from all over the country arrive in the city.

One delegate from Pennsylvania and one or two from West Virginia try to revive Roosevelt third term boom.

Negro opponents of Taft and administration threaten violence to their black opponents.

State delegations prepare to go into caucuses today for selection of committee members.

Several members of republican national committee urge the naming of Hitchcock for the new chairman.

The ladies of the West Avenue M. E. church will hold a rummage sale on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons on the church lawn. A large number of useful articles will be offered for sale, and if the weather is pleasant a big crowd is anticipated.

LA CRESCENT LADIES IMPROVE THEIR CEMETERY

An interesting work that is being taken up by the La Crescent ladies, is the improving of the cemetery in that place. Among the affairs which have been given for the raising of funds for the work, was the ice cream social and quilt drawing which took place last Saturday evening in the town hall. Number 14 was the lucky number that drew the elegant silk quilt and it was held by Mr. J. Heiss, one of the La Crosse Tribune solicitors. The cemetery on the hill in La Crescent is beautifully located and already begins to show the effects of being taken care of by the ladies.

About $30 was realized at the social Saturday evening, and there will be many other affairs of the same nature given during the summer months.

SURPRISE PARTY.

On Wednesday evening Miss Louise Michel of 923 Denton street was given a pleasant surprise party by a number of friends who dropped in in honor of her birthday. The first part of the evening was spent in playing progressive clinch. The first prizes were taken by H. Hickisch and Anna Michel, the second by R. J. Roth and Grace Gerlich, and O. Peterson and Adeline Niebuhr won the foot prizes. Refreshments were served at 11:30, after which games were played. All reported a good time. Miss Michel was presented with a set of handsome orange spoons, from the guests.

Those present were: Misses Adeline Niebuhr, Minnie Roth, Tillie Schaller, Louise Michel, Anna Michel, Grace Gerlich, Anna Mos, Tillie Husse, and Messrs. H. Rennebohm, J. E. Kirchels, H. B. Dorey, B. Horlitz, Hugo Hickisch, R. J. Roth, B. McConville and Otto Peterson.

HAYRACK PARTY.

A jolly crowd of about thirty ladies comprising Mrs. Bangsberg's circle of the First M. E. church went out to the county poor farm this afternoon, the guests of Mrs. Johnson, the matron, who is also a member of Mrs. Bangsberg's circle. A picnic lunch will be partaken of, and the return made in the early evening.

MRS. ANDERSON OF WEST SALEM DIES

Mrs. Perry Anderson of West Salem died at the Lutheran hospital at 3 o'clock this morning. She was brought here Wednesday noon, but since then had been in a precarious condition, and but small hopes had been entertained for her recovery. Spinal meningitis was the cause of her death.

Mrs. Anderson was born in Bostwick's valley in 1878 and was the daughter of Eric Ericson. Friends and relatives are grieved to hear of her death as she was held in high esteem and always had a kind word for everybody. The body will be taken to West Salem for burial and the funeral will be held from the house at 2 o'clock Wednesday.

The deceased leaves a husband, two children, mother, two sisters and one brother.

ALL OFFICE HOLDERS WILL BE CANDIDATES

From present indications all of the office holders in La Crosse county will be candidates for the renomination at the fall primaries. Some of the officers have had two or three terms, but this will not be permitted to stand in the way of taking the office again if the voters will stand for it.

There will be several other candidates in some cases, George D. Wright's candidacy being already conceded for the office of clerk of the court. There are several candidates for the office of sheriff, this being the only office in the county where the law provides an incumbent shall not be a candidate for reelection the succeeding term.

County Clerk Rawlinson and District Attorney Boshard both are understood to be favorable to accepting their offices again but have made no formal announcement as yet.

USEFULNESS OF CORN STARCH

Aids the Housewife in New and Valuable Ways—Excellent Reputation Established by Well-Known Brand.

There are times—of frequent occurrence in the experience of every housewife—when her dishes seem to lack the essential element of variety; when she feels that her family has become weary of her cooking, and when the daily routine becomes to her a monotonous drag.

Certain dishes, however, must be prepared frequently, and the problem resolves itself into making these in a new and better way. It is right here that the housewife may receive valuable aid from the use of corn starch to add a new and pleasing flavor to many dishes, making them more nourishing and digestible.

Two of America's most eminent cooking authorities, Alice Cary Watterman and Janet M. Hill, have made a careful study of this subject and its possibilities, using the old reliable Kingsford's Oswego Corn Starch, a kind that both recommend.

The result reveals methods of preparing some of the more common articles of every-day cooking that tend to decidedly remove them from the commonplace. For example, blanc mange or other pudding made of this famous product is most excellent when served with a sauce of fresh or stewed fruits poured over it, forming a dessert which may be served in winter as well as in summer. Mayonnaise and other dressings are found to be smoother and of better flavor when prepared with this corn starch; soups, gravies and sauces of all sorts are also greatly improved by it.

Kingsford's is famed for its absolute purity and uniformly high quality. "Sixty-six Years of Superiority." It is particularly desirable on account of its remarkably delicate, taking perfectly the daintiest flavors.

In "Original Recipes and Cooking Helps," a book prepared by the above-mentioned authorities, are given more than a hundred novel ways in which corn starch will aid the busy cook. T. Kingsford & Son, Oswego, New York (National Starch Company, Successors), manufacturers of Kingsford's Oswego Corn Starch, will mail a copy of this book to any address free of charge upon request.

FORMERLY WEALTHY; FOUND IN POVERTY

Too proud to ask and of his relatives, Mr. F. Adams, aged 78 years, a former prosperous manufacturer, was found in the La Crosse county poor house by his granddaughter, Miss Wall, of Dubuque. For some years in the late eighties Mr. Adams operated a woolen mill at Hokah, Minn. One night the mill was totally destroyed by fire and the savings of many years were wiped out. Mr. Adams left Hokah soon after and lived in Racine until his wife died six years after the fire. He finally drifted to La Crosse and in 1904 was compelled by poor health to ask help from the county authorities. From that time he has been an inmate of the poor farm.

People residing at Hokah never knew what became of Mr. Adams and relatives searched for the missing man without success. A few days ago Miss Wall of Dubuque came to La Crosse on a visit. During her stay at the home of friends she found out the whereabouts of her grandfather. Miss Wall at once wrote to her sister, a head nurse in a Chicago hospital, who came here immediately and made arrangements for his removal.

JAMES CAMPBELL, HE WILL "FIX" YOU

THAT IS HE WILL IF YOU TELL HE GOT NINETY DAYS

CONFESSED STEALING LOGS

But Like All Wrong Doers He Shies at the Publicity Accruing and Promises to "Fix" the Reporters

If you tell anyone that James Campbell got nine months in the penitentiary for stealing logs you want to look out or he'll "fix you."

The gentleman made the announcement to a reporter in court this morning, and he was growing loud with threats when the sheriff "hooked" his arm, and pulled him protesting to the "coop" to await the buggy to the jail.

Campbell pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing logs valued at $75.00 from J. Boucher, Lewis Olson and John Johnson. The three men had purchased the logs out of the wharf of the old McDonald mill, and had them rafted together. During the night Campbell proceeded to run them off and on the following day sold them to George Phillips for $20. After receiving his sentence and being started "on his way" by the sheriff he approached the reporters with threats if the facts were printed.

NEW RECORD OF 12-9 1-2 IN POLE VAULT

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 15.—Captain Walter Remy Dray of the Yale track team today created a new world's record in the pole vault at the Danbury game of the A. A. U. He made the wonderful vault of 12 feet 9 1/2 inches on his first try. He allowed this to stand. This breaks the record made by J. C. Gilbert of the Yale track team at the Olympic trials last week of 12 feet 7 1/2 inches. Dray broke the record informally and without official witnesses at the Yale field yesterday, getting 12 8 inches.

VIROQUA PASTOR CALLED BY ANTIGO

VIROQUA, Wis., June 15.—(Special.)—Rev. Jesse Sarles has received a very flattering offer from Antigo, a place of some eight thousand inhabitants, to take charge of a large church. It is understood that the church desires a pastor to take charge in July.

The base ball game Saturday afternoon, New Albin vs. White Sox resulted in 2 to 1 in favor of Viroqua. New Albin made the one score in the first inning and Viroqua gained the two in the fifth inning. Viroqua's pitcher gave one base on balls and the New Albin pitcher, McDonald, struck out two men while Viroqua's pitcher (Johnson) struck out seven. The New Albin team got 7 hits and Viroqua 2. Viroqua had 3 errors and New Albin none. The game was interesting, but a small crowd was in attendance, owing to threatening rain and wet grounds.

LETTER WINS HIM A COOL $2,000

Had Louis Metz delayed writing home a few months more he would have lost his inheritance amounting to about $2,000. He left La Crosse 21 years ago and during this time no letter had been received from him by his relatives in this city. His mother, Mrs. Christina Metz died five years ago, leaving an estate to be divided among her children. Although Louis Metz had then been missing for sixteen years, the mother made provision for him in the hopes that he would return. The will provided that the estate should be divided into three equal portions, two of which were to go to John C. Metz and Miss Mollie Metz and the third reserved for a time for the missing son. If he was not heard from in six years his share was to be equally divided between the other two children.

Arrangements have been made in the probate court to pay over to Louis Metz his share of the estate amounting to about $2,000.

IT TAKES BRAUN TO HANDLE A SQUAW

Crooks are not hard to handle, according to Officer McDonough but when one tries to haul a drunken Indian squaw to the police station he has his hands full.

A full blood Winnebago Indian squaw was found by the officer sitting in front of the hotel La Crosse enjoying herself. To his suggestion that she move on she merely grunted at being disturbed and went on drinking of "fire water." A closer examination showed that she was "dead drunk."

The question of how to get her to the station was the next obstacle encountered. A tug at her shoulder was like trying to move the rock of Gibraltar. Just about this time a farmer wagon came clattering along the street. With its appearance Officer McDonough immediately formulated a plan of attack.

"Here you! Stop a minute!"

The plan of the officer was explained to the somewhat surprised farmer but he consented.

After some minutes of hard tugging, pulling and "boosting" she was loaded into the wagon and with the farmer driving and the officer perched on the rear she was taken to the police station followed by an amused and inquisitive crowd of people.

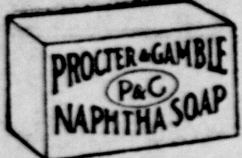

At the station nearly as much trouble was experienced in unloading her. She was finally lodged into a cell where she was allowed to dream over the remarkable legends of her forefathers in peace. Upon sobering up she was released.

A varied and interesting program is being presented the first part of this week, among the pictures being "The Bette Circuit" and the "Hair Dresser."

BITTER FIGHT ON IKE STEPHENSON

ments. Another plan of the opponents of "Uncle Ike" is to hold a threat of defeat over him to compel him to decline when nominated, saying he appreciates the honor, but it should go to some one capable of making the chair's announcements. The fight is of a bitter nature, and means much to the Marinette union.

Fight on Stephenson.
The story of the fight to oust Stephenson is an interesting one. There is no longer any pretense of concealing the fact that the senator has gone back to his first love—the stalwart crowd—and that he is entirely out of sympathy with the La Follette faction. Precedent would make him chairman of the Wisconsin delegation, both because he is its senior member and because of his official position. But Stephenson is the only member of the delegation, barring Mr. Alexander, the stalwart elected from the tenth district, who is opposed to the La Follette planks, and his leadership was a natural assumption. To elect him chairman of the delegation, knowing that he would lead a fight against a program the friends of which recognized that it was doomed to defeat as a matter of course, would enable the ex-halibreed to return to Wisconsin apparently triumphant over the La Follette men through the defeat of their most earnest activity in the convention. That this promised an advantage to Stephenson in his senatorial campaign is apparent, and it is a bit of glory which the liberals could not churlishly accord him.

Sympathy a Danger.
On the other hand, there was the argument that to deprive Senator Stephenson of the customary honors would tend to create for him that sort of sympathy which so potentially aided in the victory of Senator Allison over Gov. Cummins in Iowa, a state which is not believed to prefer Allison doctrine to the Cummins brand by any means.

The Final Inspiration.
These were the considerations which had weight in the discussion of the advisability of beginning the political ostracism of Mr. Stephenson, but the inspiration doubtless had its immediate origin in an incident which occurred in Washington during the recent filibuster of Senator La Follette against the Vreeland bill. Senator Stephenson was engaged in light conversation with Senator Dewey and one or two other cronies, when pointing to La Follette, he is alleged to have said:

"I paid $450,000 freight on that (the relative pronoun indicating Senator La Follette) and look at what I got for my money."

Senator Dewey regarded this as a choice witticism, and as the joke seemed to be on Senator La Follette, he "blabbed" it about the senate. Of course it got back to Senator La Follette, and the Marinette sawlog statesman may accept this own blarney, if not as the cause at least as the excuse, for having to fight for a cherished honor which precedent would have vouchsafed him.

A Stalwart Coup.
Another mild sensation has been sprung here as an "among friends" line of talk by William H. J. Kieckhefer, of Milwaukee. He is quietly promoting the candidacy of Col. William C. Brumberger, of that city, as a halfbreed candidate for the gubernatorial nomination against Governor Davidson. Mr. Brumberger is a La Follette man of the "sane" order, and it is said that, as the least accused of the halfbreeds, the stalwarts would like to create a breach between him and the La Follette people. The talk here is that under the pretence of really favoring Brumberger for governor, they are using Mr. Kieckhefer as a tool, the plan being to induce Mr. Brumberger to run against Davidson, who would certainly defeat him, and then to inflame Brumberger with the accusation that Senator La Follette and his followers prevented his nomination.

That Roosevelt Boom
Senator Borah of Idaho is credited today with having resurrected the Roosevelt boom by making the positive statement that a stampede for the president would be started in the convention and that it would be successful.

Dolliver Looms Up
Iowa men here say that there is but one thing that can prevent Senator Dolliver's nomination for vice president, his refusal to accept. They assert that Taft and the president desire it, and that fear of its resurrecting the Iowa factional fight is confined to Publisher "Lafe" Young of Des Moines and a few other conservatives who have reason to suspect that the revival of the conflict, since they no longer have the gray hairs of the venerable Senator Allison, the much abused, as a "sympathy racket," would mean the sudden termination of a factional triumph based on sentimentality rather than on political opinion.

A telegram was received today from Puellier announcing his withdrawal from the race for national committeeman, to succeed J. W. Babcock. This leaves the field without dispute to Alfred T. Rogers, Senator La Follette's business partner.

Among the Wisconsin men here tonight are A. T. Rogers, Madison; H. L. Ekern, Whitehall; W. L. Houser, Mondovi; E. M. Wing, La Crosse; H. A. Cooper, Racine; Assemblyman C. F. Strout, of Westboro; W. H. Dick, New London; C. K. Lush, Madison; John T. Murphy, Superior; John J. Hannan, Milwaukee; F. C. Cady, Green Bay; H. J. Clark, Richland Center; Pere O. Stromme, Madison; George W. Peck, Milwaukee.

John Wellington Hoag of the First Baptist church will conduct the services and interment will take place at Oak Grove.

CORNICE CO. TO BE SUED FOR $10,000 were not quite ready to be filed, and he declined to discuss the case, but admitted the papers would be ready in a very few days.

In the complaint it is alleged that up to May 29, 1905, C. C. Lynd, H. C. Thomas and W. G. McKay were all in the employ of the plaintiffs, Mr. Lynd at that time being chief clerk in the offices of the company. It is alleged that they left the La Crosse Steel Roofing and Corrugating company for the purpose of starting the other concern and at the time of leaving C. C. Lynd, having access to the books and accounts of the company, took a list of the names and addresses of all the regular customers of the company together with other information for the use of the company.

The complaint further charges that the name "La Crosse," a brand name which was in general use by the plaintiffs for some time, had been appropriated by the defendants at the present time using it on articles they manufactured which were identical with articles manufactured by the La Crosse Steel Roofing and Corrugating company.

They also allege that in the newspaper and trade journal advertisements of the defendants they have used the name "La Crosse" in advertising articles, the same as manufactured by the plaintiffs, so as to mislead the public.

W. S. Cargill is charged in the complaint with knowing the existing circumstances at the time of the organization of the La Crosse Cornice and Ceiling company and also that he aided the plans of Lynd and the others connected with the deal.

LICENSE MAY KEEP RINGLINGS AWAY

ADVANCE AGENT REFUSES TO PAY TWO HUNDRED

PLANNED SHOW HERE JULY 14

Conference is Held With the Mayor, but Up to This Afternoon No Agreement Had Been Reached

Mr. N. J. Pelep, advance agent for the Ringling Brothers' World's Great Shows was in the city this morning making preparations to bring the shows here July 14.

Arrangements were progressing smoothly until he appeared at the office of City Clerk Joseph Siegel and requested a circus license. When told by the clerk that the license was $200, he "faded away" with the statement that unless the license was reduced Ringling Brothers would not appear in La Crosse. Later a session was held with the mayor, but nothing was definitely decided on.

The circus licenses are the highest of any city in this vicinity. A few weeks ago when the matter was taken before the city clerk he corresponded with other cities in the state and found that there was not another city in Wisconsin where the license was over $100, with the exception of Milwaukee. At Madison the license is not set, but left in the hands of the mayor and city clerk. In Oshkosh it is from $25 to $100, Wausau, $50, Minneapolis and St. Paul $150. At St. Paul the license was formerly $500, but with the past few years it has been reduced to $150 because they were boycotted by all the leading shows.

Nothing had been decided on today in reference to Ringling Brothers coming to La Crosse, but it is expected some arrangements will be made in order to have the shows here. A satisfactory location also bothers the advance agent, but that difficulty was left to the city officials.

MERCHANTS TO GO TO LANSING

number of people living in La Crosse who formerly resided in Lansing. The steamer E. Rutledge has been chartered to carry the delegation and the several hundred merchants and friends will leave the levee at 9 o'clock in the morning, accompanied by a band and all the necessities of success. On arriving at Lansing a committee of the Homecoming festival will take charge of affairs and make the day a success for the visitors.

Wednesday has been designated as "La Crosse day" and everything to make the day a success will be carried out by the Lansing officials and the Merchants are in hopes of sending a banner crowd. Already about 300 tickets have been spoken for.

On arriving at Lansing a large variety of amusement places will be ready for the delegation and a water carnival is now in preparation. Several La Crosse boxes will be in attendance at the races and parade. Returning the boat will leave Lansing at 6 o'clock, arriving home at 9:30. The committee of the Retail Merchants composed of Messrs. J. F. Feller, W. Strauss, Carl Kurtzacker and John Toeller, are making every effort to have a large crowd.

DASHED TO DEATH IN DIP THE DIP

CHICAGO, June 15.—A man, as yet unidentified, riding in the front seat of a car in the "royal gorge," a coaster device at Riverview park, fell or jumped from the car yesterday afternoon and was killed instantly.

The man was apparently of German extraction. He weighed 210 pounds and was about 45 years of age. A gold watch and $20 were found in his pockets, but no papers, and a search of his clothing failed to give any clue as to his identity. The body was taken to the undertaking rooms of Ernst Schmidt, 302 Belmont avenue. Lieut. McDonald of the North Robey street police station is conducting an investigation.

FRENCH OBJECT TO RUSSIAN VISIT

PARIS, June 15.—President Fallieres is experiencing opposition to his proposed visit to the czar, as was encountered by King Edward. Following the example of the English, the United Socialist party is making a clamorous protest against the visit. The grounds are the same as urged by the English, that the czar's treatment of his subjects has been such as to warrant his isolation by all nations standing for decency and liberty.

A West London hawk was busy selling pickling cabbages the other day, when an old lady came up to him and said, "Can you tell me the way to Turnham Green?" "Wot d'yer want to turn 'em green for?" said the man. "Can't yer see they're pickling?"

LA FOLLETTE WILL FIGHT FOR TARIFF

the only real excitement in a cut and dried convention. Four years ago it contributed the sensational contest in which the La Follette delegation was excluded from the convention in a state in which they represented the overwhelming majority of their party; this year they will offer in committee platform planks which will furnish the keenest conflict of the convention, and they will take the contest on these planks onto the floor of the convention and fight their battle to a finish. In the proposition to vitalize the republican platform of 1908 Senator La Follette will live clear up to the top of his reputation of always being able to "start something."

The Stalwart Predicament.

The enjoyment of the two republican factions in having "pegged 'Bob' in on both sides" has not been unmixed with grins at the expense of the stalwarts of Wisconsin. These gentlemen are in a peculiar—nay, embarrassing—situation. The element in the Badger state which is in sympathy with the allies enjoys, or suffers, the distinction of being ostensibly for Taft, and thus handicapped in any fight against him by the allies in which they might be minded to join. This is a circumstance which the big political dopsters are just beginning to recognize. They had slated La Follette as one of the allies, because he is opposing Taft. But he is nearer to Taft than any of the allies, while the real allies of Wisconsin are doped as "Tafters." The only thing that could hurt the feelings of Mr. Phillips and the Wisconsin stalwarts more than to be thus forced into ostensible support of Mr. Taft would be to be known as La Follette shouters. They were between the devil and the deep sea; they chose to escape by sea, and now they are discovering that they can't swim.

Senator Dolliver today made an announcement, half-heartedly declining the vice-presidential nomination. The Iowa delegation, which is standard, wants him to decline, but the people of the state want him to accept. The declination today is not regarded as final, if Roosevelt and Taft continue to urge him. It came in a letter from Dolliver, written to Chairman Parkins of the Iowa delegation. It authorizes Parkins to withdraw Dolliver's name.

ENGINEERS' PICNIC A GRAND SUCCESS

The annual picnic given by the La Crosse lodge No. 8 of Wisconsin National Association of Stationary Engineers, was a grand success.

The steamer Rutledge had been chartered for the occasion and bearing Dana's band, nearly all the members of the lodge, and 16 traveling men representing firms manufacturing engineer's supplies, the boat left for Dakota park.

A ball game between the traveling men and the engineers resulted in a victory for the latter. The score, however, was so large, according to the engineers, that to attempt to keep track of it would have been futile. Eddie Holt occupied the box for the engineers and the way he hurled them over home plate was nothing slow. A triple play by the engineers was the feature of the game. Sam Foust, who occupied the box for the traveling men, made a good showing, but his support could have been better. According to the traveling men the Merry Widow hats interfered with their play.

Speeches were made by Sam Foust and John Fley, and they were well seasoned with humorous remarks. The initiation of seven candidates took up considerable of the afternoon and the "stunts" they performed created no little amusement.

A sumptuous repast was prepared by John Neukomm.

The party returned to La Crosse about 8:30 in the evening.

ANNUAL BATCH OF LICENSE SESSIONS

Commencing this evening and continuing until the next meeting of the council, July 10, the common council will hold a session each evening, when matters pertaining to the granting of saloon licenses will be taken up. The meetings are held in compliance with the statutes of the city which call for a meeting prior to the granting of licenses. The meeting will be held in the city hall and only matters pertaining to the granting of licenses will be taken up.

NOTHING CAN PART THAWS, SAYS LAWYER

NEW YORK, June 15.—In a statement made today by Dan O'Reilly, counsel for Evelyn Thaw, it was emphatically declared nothing can separate the couple and that all the talk of divorce is untrue. O'Reilly also stated Mrs. Thaw probably would stay in New York pending the decision of Justice Morschauer regarding the commitment of Thaw to some other institution than Matteawan.

PRETENDER'S HORDES ARE REINFORCED

TANGIER, June 15.—Crazed with joy over the addition to their ranks of four thousand soldiers of the sultan Abdul Aziz, followers of Mauli Hafid, the pretender, are committing outrages that it is feared will either call for intervention by France or will plunge Morocco into a bloody war.

Unless their enthusiasm leads them astray the followers of Mauli seem in a fair way to realize the fruits of their years of war against the sultan.

CATARRH A SERIOUS FAR-REACHING BLOOD DISORDER

Even in its early stages Catarrh is almost intolerable, caused by the stuffy feeling in the nose, the buzzing noises in the ears, the continual "hawking and spitting" difficult breathing, etc. But when the blood becomes thoroughly polluted from the catarrhal matter, the inflammation extends to the bronchial tubes, causing hoarseness, and often an aggravating cough; the stomach is affected, resulting in dyspepsia, loss of appetite and strength, and gradually all the mucous membranes of the body become diseased and the system upset and deranged. Frequently the kidneys and bladder are attacked, and the constant passage of impure blood through the lungs, diseases these important members, and Catarrh terminates in Consumption. Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease, and must be treated constitutionally, for it is beyond the reach of local treatment. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all the impure catarrhal matter and at the same time building up the entire system. It goes down and attacks the disease at its head, in the circulation, and removes every trace of the impurity that is causing the trouble. Then as rich, pure blood circulates through the body, the inflamed membranes commence to heal, the mucous discharges grow less and finally cease, and all the disagreeable and disgusting symptoms of Catarrh disappear. S. S. S. has caused every trace of the impurity that is causing the trouble. Then as rich, pure blood circulates through the body, the inflamed membranes commence to heal, the mucous discharges grow less and finally cease, and all the disagreeable and disgusting symptoms of Catarrh disappear. MAJOR ALFRED DREYFUS AND PANTHEON IN PARIS WHERE HE WAS SHOT

PARIS, June 11.—The shooting of Major Alfred Dreyfus in the Pantheon during the canonizing of the late author, Emile Zola, may lead to a reopening of the famous Dreyfus case or even to revolution in France. Louis Anthele Gregoris, Dreyfus' assailant, is in prison. That Dreyfus escaped instant death at the assassin's hands is marvelous, or the shot was fired at close range and undoubtedly with the intent to kill. More than 300 arrests have been made, and Paris is greatly wrought up over the incident. It is evident that the feeling for and against Dreyfus is as strong today as ever. Gregoris stated while in prison that he had fired not at Dreyfus but at Dreyfusism. It was reported at the time that President Fallieres had been assassinated, and so excited were the crowds in and around the Pantheon that the police failed utterly to control them. Gregoris is not an ordinary fanatic and is not an anarchist. He is a man of mature age, well educated and a writer of authority on military subjects. By this shooting the whole Dreyfus affair may indirectly be opened before July. In some quarters it is openly asserted that revolution may be the result of this anti-Semitic outburst.

STARTS ON LONG CRUISE WEDNESDAY

"THE THISTLE" READY FOR HER TRIP TO GULF

TRIBUNE GETS SPECIAL STORY

Melville E. Trux Will Write From Each Stopping Place of the Needs and Romantic Past of River

Following is the first of the series of stories to be contributed through Mr. Trux, during his trip from the head of navigation, exclusively to The Tribune in La Crosse during the summer.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 15.—(Special.)—On Wednesday morning, Melville E. Trux, special correspondent of the "Motor Boat" magazine and The La Crosse Tribune, will start in his power boat Thistle on a journey through the navigable length of the Mississippi river from below the government lock dam in this city to the mouth of the great Father of Waters at New Orleans. With him will be his assistant and engineer, Myron D. Savage, and from the time of the start these gentlemen will be almost continuously on the water until late in the fall.

This trip is planned and run under the auspices of "Motor Boat," an up-to-date magazine which deals with the sport, and its purpose is to organize and further the sport along the Mississippi. Continuous efforts will be made to organize motor boat clubs in each of the cities visited and the undertaking has been planned as an attempt to concentrate the attention of enthusiasts to the river and its possibilities for pleasure and profit.

Mr. Trux will devote his entire time to the gathering of data concerning the great waterway, its past, its needs and its possibilities. Aside from the value of this information in connection with pending improvements, there is a wealth of romantic history and tradition, which, as an embellishment, should make the results of this trip intensely interesting and of undoubted news value.

Mysteries of the River.

For instance what becomes of the current in Lake Pepin, the bottomless body of water regarded as the most dangerous lake in the United States and the only one protected by the government with highhouse and storm signals? Of what importance are the fisheries in the vicinity of Wabasha, that one lone seiner made $15,000 net profit in but a few months of last year? What of the government station opposite La Crosse for the propagation of fresh water clams, one of the few of its kind in the world? What fear keeps the game wardens from interfering with illegal fishermen in what is known as the "Bad Axe" country near Genoa, Wis., where miles of nets are reeled along the shores like in the fisheries of Holland?

What is the story of the first pontoon bridge ever built, the invention of Gen. John Lawler—still in use in an abandoned channel at Prairie du Chien? What of a decaying hulk on the mudshore at Cassville, which was the invention of a McGregor, Iowa, man who dreamed of building the fastest boat in the world? What of the great clam industry and the pearl hunters who have been made rich in a day? And how about the fantastic "Crazy Man's Castle" built by a Minneska hermit on the wreckage of boats and driftwood? And what of the sleepy villages that thrived with life in the old "river" days?

These are but a few of the possibilities of this trip from a news feature standpoint and Mr. Trux will write especially for The Tribune on whatever items of interest present themselves. He will attend all the big race and aquatic events along the river and his trip is to include the promotion of motor boating in every practical way.

Twenty-six Foot Boat.

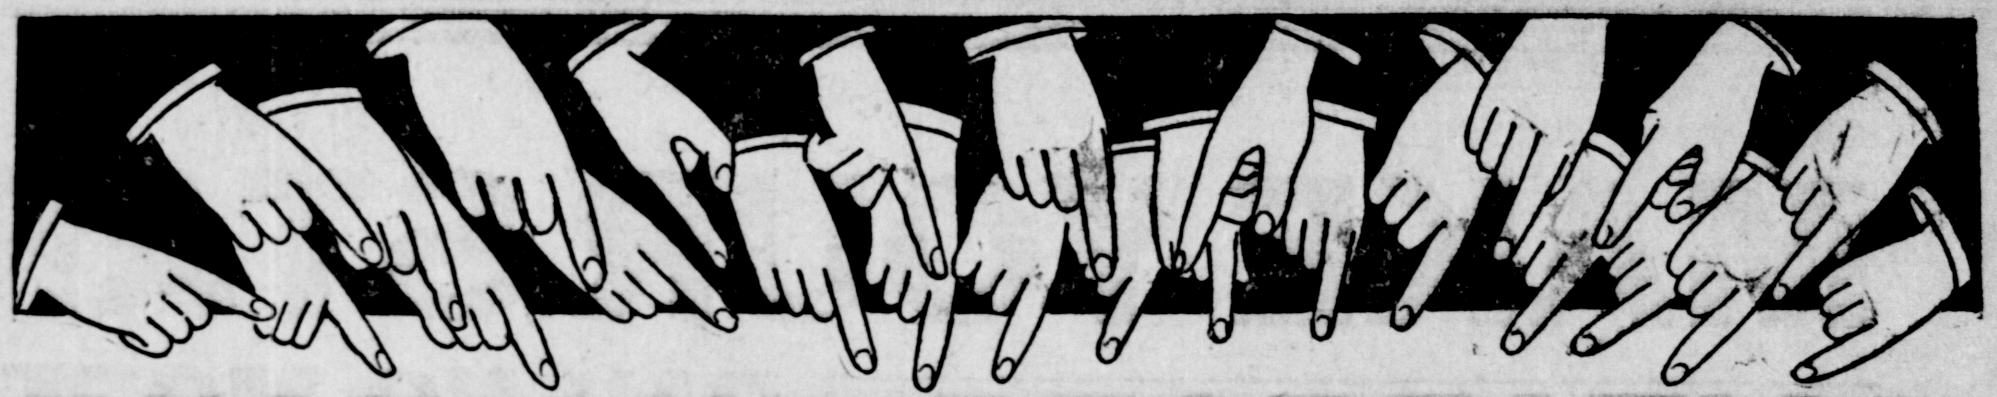

The journey will be made in a 26-foot "Pope Special" boat, manufactured by the Pope company of Fond du Lac, Wis. This boat is of 10-12 horse power and is driven by the Davis double opposed auto marine engine, hidden under the thwart seats. The engine is ignited by a storage battery charged from an Apple generator connected with the engine. The battery lights the boat, including the red and green steering lights. A powerful acetylene searchlight and generator is also installed on the Thistle.

The Thistle is weather proof and is fitted with a Kenyon auto top with sides and six side lights. This top covers the entire cockpit and folds on a roller after deck when not in use. A spray hood completes the top and renders the boat absolutely tight from high seas or rain. Although the Thistle is not a speed boat, she can hit up 15 or 16 miles an hour down stream and thus will be able to make time whenever a spurt is necessary. She is fitted with a noisy siren and the cushions of her seats are life preservers, ready for use at any time of danger.

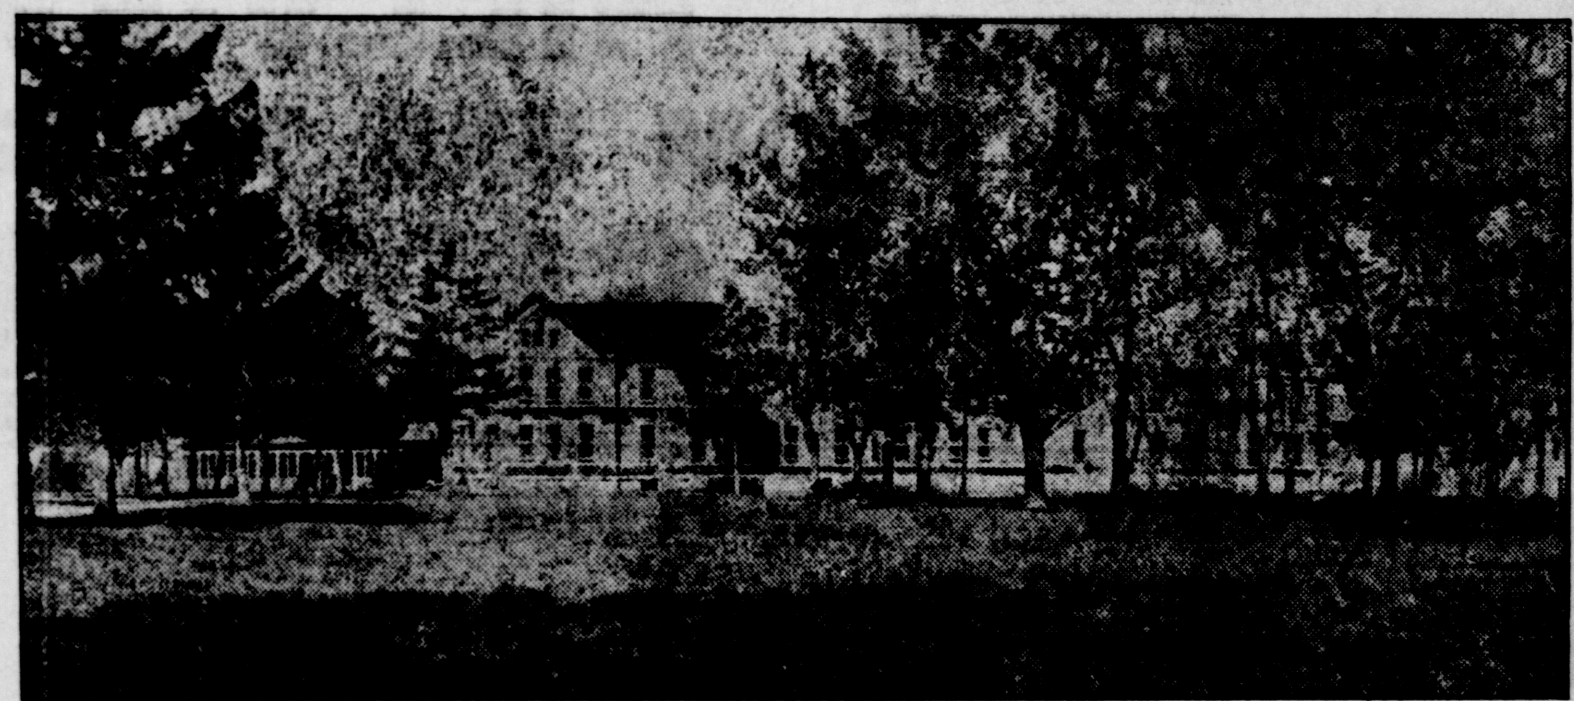

Leaving the government dam on Thursday her first stop will be at Red Wing which is a great motor boat resort. Over two hundred of these power boats are on the river at this city and a great reception is being planned for Mr. Trux.

It is his intention to spend but a day or two in each city as the Thistle is booked to be in Muscatine, Iowa, July 3 and 4 for a big motor boat meet on those dates. Mr. Trux has been loaned the private chart of the Mississippi owned by Captain W. A. Thompson of La Crosse, who has charge of the government boats for the La Crosse district.

At each one of his stops Mr. Trux

POPULATION IS INCREASED BY 21

During the month of May the population of La Crosse was increased by 21, according to the records of the health officer at the city hall. During the month of May the number of births exceeded the number of deaths by that number.

Twenty-seven deaths were recorded during that month, fourteen females and 13 males, while the record of births show that there were thirty baby girls born and eighteen boys.

FAIL TO SINK MONITOR FLORIDA

NORFOLK, Va., June 15.—For the second time in two weeks the Monitor Florida was fired upon today in Hampton Roads under war conditions, and she still floats.

Today her double bottom was forced slightly aft of amidships by pedo. Although the attack was pronounced a success the ship was not seriously damaged. The test was dramatic and spectacular in the extreme. Officers and men of the crew remained on the vessel. The hiss of the torpedo as she plunged from the barge, its contact with the ship and the shock to those aboard was akin to the explosion of a 12 inch gun. Only a specially constructed bullhead compartment 12 feet square was penetrated by the torpedo, which apparently exploded upon contact. No damage was done to the boiler or engine room and the leakage in the dynamo room was not serious. The explosion did not interfere with the steam apparatus. Though the opinion of experts differed, it was declared by the chief construction expert, a ship with hull steam up at sea could sustain a like attack, and still be in condition to do battle. The vessel, though she listed to the starboard sixteen inches, remained afloat, and could have made her way back to the dock had she had steam up. The test was made at high tide.

NOTRE DAME COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

WISCONSIN NEWS

CORPORATIONS CAN NOT GET LICENSES

ATTORNEY RENDERS O DECISION ON THE MATTER

COMPANY IS NOT A CITIZEN

The Ruling Affects Cities Like La
Crosse, Oshkosh, Milwaukee and Racine

MADISON, Wis., June 15.—Saloon licenses can not be lawfully granted to corporations. This is the gist of an opinion rendered by Attorney General Frank L. Gilbert in reply to a query from District Attorney Robert V. Baker of Kenosha county.

The ruling of the attorney general is of wide importance because it declares that a practice that has been followed in nearly every village and city in the state is contrary to the law.

Large Cities Affected

Cities like Milwaukee, Madison, Racine, Oshkosh, La Crosse and other large places will be especially affected.

"Although section 4971 provides that the word 'person' in our statutes may be extended to include corporations, as well as individuals, if there is nothing in the statute to show that such construction would be inconsistent with the manifest intent of the legislature, it seems to me apparent that provision 1565 L of our law absolutely bars corporations from receiving licenses," says Mr. Gilbert.

Is Not a Citizen

"A corporation is not a full citizen of the United States nor of the state in the sense in which the terms are used in this statute, nor are they residents of any town, city or village in this state. It may also be stated that a great many of the violations of our liquor laws provide a punishment of imprisonment together with a fine. Although a corporation may be indicted, convicted and punished by fine or forfeitures under our law, still it is impossible to imprison a corporation.

"The authorities that I have examined on the question of whether a corporation can be lawfully licensed to sell intoxicating liquors at retail turned upon the construction of some statutory provisions and I find no authority which would authorize me

FAVORS COUNTY SCHOOL FOR BOYS

AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL IS THE ONE FOR FARMER'S SON

CARRIES ON WORK OF "U"

And Reaches Thousands of Students
Who Couldn't Be Reached
Any Other Way

MADISON, Wis., June 15.—(Special.)—Prof. R. A. Moore of the university is a believer in county agricultural schools. The average high school is not the farmer's boys school, he declares, and it was never intended to be. The county school carries on the work started by the agricultural department of the university and reaches thousands, who would otherwise never be reached.

Four of these schools are now in successful operation at Menomonee, Wausau, Marinette and Winneconne, and appropriations have been made for the establishment of four others. One of the latter four has just been given to Onalaska, another will probably be established at Gay's Mills, Crawford county, and there is an agitation to establish one at Plattville for Iowa, Lafayette and Grant counties.

Other States Are Interested.

The first schools were started as the result of a bill introduced by to hold that under the provisions of our statute a corporation could be legally licensed to sell intoxicating liquors at retail.

"The statutory requirement that the applicant for a license shall be a citizen of the state and a resident of the county or district where he proposes to do business is jurisdictional in its nature and unless the petitioner satisfies the licensing authorities that he possesses those qualifications, they have no power to grant a license."

"I may also add that under our statute it is left to the discretion of the licensing authority to grant licenses to suitable persons and it is their duty to pass upon the personal qualifications of the applicant. These personal qualifications it would seem to me are such as to require only to individuals and not to corporations."

former Senator W. H. Hatten of New London, and passed at the 1901 session of the legislature. The plan proved so feasible that succeeding legislatures have voted for additional schools and the belief is general that the next session of the legislature will make provisions for two more institutions.

The experiment stage has been passed. Minnesota, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and even New York have watched Wisconsin's efforts and are now building up similar systems. It is claimed that Wisconsin discovered that only a small percentage of the boys from the farms of this state can attend the agricultural college. So in order to provide for a wide dissemination of the benefits of education in agriculture, the state has broadened its policy.

Work of Wide Interest.

Perhaps the work of widest interest in this line is the farmers' course conducted at Winneconne and Marinette during the past year. For one week farmers of the vicinity were asked to attend the school, and a group of professors from the university were sent up to give instruction on special topics. Over 500 farmers attended the Winneconne school alone.

In connection with the agricultural work given in these schools there is a domestic economy course for the girls from the farm and in every one of the county institutions, about one-half of the attendance is girls. The schools at Menomonee being the oldest, has the largest attendance. Nearly 100 are registered there. About 45 are registered at each of the other schools.

Moore Talks of the Schools.

"The 300 or 400 students who annually attend the short course in agriculture at the university are but a drop in a bucket when compared with the total agricultural population of the state," said Prof. R. A. Moore. "The county agricultural school is a sort of a distributing station. It takes the agricultural training to the people of the state whom the university cannot reach."

"The average high school is not a farmer boy's school. It was never intended to be. To educate the boy one the farm we must have farm schools, where practical information is imparted. When a boy has finished a common school course he may enter the agricultural school. The work of these schools is attracting general attention. Prof. L. S. Bailey, dean of the department of agriculture at Cornell university, has made several visits to the agricultural schools at Menomonee and Wausau and is highly pleased with the work they are doing."

CAMPAIGN FOR CONGRESS OPENS

SUPERIOR, Wis., June 15.—Irvine L. Lenroot, former speaker of the Wisconsin assembly, a candidate for the next governor two years ago, opened his campaign for congress at Lake Nebagamon in this county. He is opposing Congressman John J. Jenkins, chairman of the judiciary committee of the house, who is serving his seventh term as a member of the house of representatives.

The fight that was started by Lenroot in his Lake Nebagamon talk is one that is expected to be one of the warmest congressional contests ever fought in the state. It has already attracted attention all over the country and has brought forth considerable newspaper comment.

Lenroot plans to speak in every hamlet and cross roads district. He has a schedule made out for weeks ahead and refused to go to the Chicago convention to nominate Senator La Follette for the presidency on account of his speaking engagements in the district at the time of the convention.

In his address at Lake Nebagamon Mr. Lenroot referred to the letter of Congressman Jenkins in which he claimed to be a leader, occupying a position in congress second to none. He asked, if that were the case, why the congressman had not pressed forth some of the pending legislation that is near the heart of President Roosevelt and which he has been advocating to congress right along. He asked why this position of leadership had not been used to do something in the way of better legislation and why, on the contrary, some important legislation had been killed by the committee on judiciary, of which Mr. Jenkins is chairman.

Mr. Lenroot declared himself against the election of J. G. Cannon as speaker of the house of representatives and generally outlined his platform as being for tariff revision, for regulation of the power of injunction, for legislation regulating of trusts and monopolies and measures along these general lines.

A ROBBER'S BRUTAL ATTACK ON WOMAN

AVALON, Wis., June 15.—The village is excited over a daring robbery of the home of Gustav Hobert. A stranger entered the place and accosting Mrs. Hobert, who had her six months old child in her arms at the time, flashed an ugly looking knife and threatened to cut the child's throat if the mother did not secure whatever money was in the house. The ruffian insisted on holding the child while she went upstairs after the cash and when she returned with about $15 in cash, dropped the babe on the floor, knocked the woman down with a sharp rap over the head with the knife handle and took to his heels. The child was unhurt, but the woman was in a grave condition when the husband returned home about midnight.

OAKFIELD SLAYER HELD WITHOUT BAIL

FOND DU LAC, Wis., June 15.—Alert and drinking in every word of testimony offered at the preliminary hearing, Grant Poole, the murderer of Mrs. Jennie I. Orvis, exhibited no sign of insanity which it is believed will be the defense.

The examination was held before Justice Fairbanks and the defendant was bound over for trial without bail on the charge of murder.

"All's fair in love and war," quoted the wise guy. "Yes," agreed the simple mug, "especially smokeless powder."

I therefore let you know that I shall recommend them to any one suffering from such troubles."

WOMAN FINED FOR WEARING OVERALLS

Mrs. Martin Maurve in Her Overalls.

CHICAGO, June 12.—It is illegal for women to wear overalls ven for a joke. Municipal Judge Maxwell has taken Mrs. Martin Maurve, 10 68 Wrightwood avenue, to task to the tune of a $20 fine for having donned masculine attire to aid a hod carrier to take bricks from the roof of a building which is being erected on Clark street. Mrs. Maurve states this was only a joke, but the joke is on her. There is a vast difference, according to the court rulings, between a director's gown, even in the extreme faddy forms and overalls.

VERNON TRAINING SCHOOL BANQUET

VIROQUA, WIS., June 15.—(Special.)—A most enjoyable banquet was given on Thursday evening at the assembly room of the high school building by the juniors to the seven young lady graduates, the faculty, guests and students. The decorations were flag bunting, draped about the room, and streamers. The tables were arranged in the shape of the letter "E" and the spread was a credit to the caterers, the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church. The refreshments consisted of cold meats, creamed potatoes, salads, pickles, a fruit salad, ice cream, cakes and coffee. Covers were laid for 108 and fifteen young matrons acted as waiters.

After the feast Miss Belva Silbaugh, as toastmistress, ably presided and Elsie Shultz responded to "The Training School," reviewing the work it was doing and praising the same in a very pleasing way.

Miss Winifred Graham, as president of the class responded to "Seniors," and related class history and commented upon the members' strong points.

George Harris, a semi-senior, received compliments upon his semi-comical praise of his division in responding to the toast, "Semi-Senior."

Miss Alvina Rudrud with "The Juniors" gave them their full measure of praise.

Miss Wilson, one of the instructors, in "The Helpers," referred to the Message of Garcia and told the young people how necessary it was to do work without questions and spend their time securing results.

Miss Thomas sang a solo, with Leslie Slack as accompanist, which was well received by the audience.

Supt. H. L. Gardner, in his usual easy manner, commented upon the advantages of the training school work for teachers and expressed his approval of the same.

August E. Smith, the principal of the training school, gave a practical and helpful toast on "Get Ready," showing the importance of the preparation for the duties and opportunities of the school teacher.

Five recitations given by the students of the training school were well delivered and entertaining.

A chorus of students, led by Miss Thomas, supplied two songs at the commencement of the program and one at the close which were well received.

TODAY'S GRAIN GOSSIP

Crop Conditions.

St. Joe, Mo.—I just returned from a trip through northern Kansas and southern Nebraska and find corn very backward and weedy. Looks as though it would be impossible to raise half a crop at best, and the low land is all under water and it will be several days before they can work the high land if it quits raining. Wheat looks very good from the train, but upon examination does not show up well.

Kansas City—No rain at Kansas City since Saturday, weather appears to be more settled. Flood situation locally unimproved, Missouri river now doing the damage. Observer is not making any positive predictions, but believes rains are over in Kaw watershed.

Ingalls reports to Pringle F. & Co. from Wellington, Kans: Trains all so irregular that it is only wasting time remaining south; the country has no idea how severe this loss is. Was in fields again today, showing shelling. The sun comes out hot after showers, opens the chaff and is discoloring wheat rapidly. Weeds are growing rapidly in corn.

Kansas City—A wire to A. O. Slaughter: More rain in Oklahoma, and rain predicted tonight and tomorrow; things beginning to look pretty bad.

Kansas and Oklahoma Report—Clement Curtis reports that wheat is dead ripe south of Arkansas river; many fields so wet it will be six to ten days before machines can get into fields. Indiana Wheat—There are samples of wheat heads here this a. m. from southern Indiana which show blight and poor fertilization and will turn out little wheat. Three weeks ago the prospects there were excellent for a bumper crop.

YEOMEN HOLD A PLEASANT MEETING

Hickory Homestead No. 806, Brotherhood of American Yeomen, held a very pleasant meeting in Cor-en's hall Thursday evening. Seventeen members were given the work and a number of new applications were taken upon. After the meeting dancing was indulged in.

June 25 the contest between the ladies and gentlemen will come to a close, after which a banquet will be given by the Homestead, the losing side to do the work.

Sunday, June 21, is the date set apart by the Yeomen to hold their Memorial services for deceased members. A committee has been appointed and will soon have the arrangements completed.

CHEMISTS BLOWN UP BY VAPORS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 15.—While Albert A. Picker, a St. Louis manufacturer, and Miss Myra A. Mathews, a practicing physician of St. Louis, were experimenting with chemicals in a laboratory, vapor from the mixture flared, and the two were blown into the air, falling to the ground. The front of the building, which then caught fire.

Picker, who had seen that the explosion was inevitable, was hurrying toward the door with the woman when it occurred. After the shock, which rendered the woman unconscious, he carried her to the pavement, where bystanders extinguished her burning dress.

Picker ran down the street, his clothes blazing, screaming, "Save me, save me." He was stopped in front of a physician's office, where the flames leaped out.

No woman ever really recovered from the shock he received in a while by using such words.

Fears Felt for the Crops If the Rain Continues and Sun Does Not Dry Things Up

The local markets show a drop to 10 cents in strawberries today.

The farmers throughout the west are reporting bad conditions owing to wet weather. Rust however is the only possibility that hinders what looks to be a glorious year.

BRAD ROBINSON TO JOIN ROCKFORD

Brad Robinson, the young collegian secured from St. Louis university by the Milwaukee club and loaned to La Crosse of the Wisconsin-Illinois league, will probably be shifted to the Rockford club. Pink Hawley at La Crosse has secured the outfielder he was dickering for, and has no place for Robinson so he will probably be returned to Milwaukee. As Rockford wants him, McCormick will likely send him there. Robinson is one of the best collegians who has entered baseball this spring and ought to burn the ground up in the snug state league circuit.

WITTE JOINS THE BADGER CREW

MADISON, Wis., June 15.—The Wisconsin University oarsmen left Madison for Poughkeepsie on schedule time and expect to reach their destination today. Coach Ten Eyck took along Dexter H. Witte, the member of the varsity eight who was declared ineligible by the dean of the College of Medicine. The athletic council authorized its coach to do so pending a formal decision of Witte's eligibility by the university faculty, which will consider the subject this week.

When a mother scolds her son and the father agrees with her, this makes her so mad that she forgets the boy and goes after the father.

"FAVORITE SONS"— FRANKLIN MURPHY

FIRST FAVORITE PUSHED FOR THE VICE PRESIDENCY

JERSEY'S CHOICE A BIG MAN

Is Regarded as a Strong Republican in the East and Would Likely Help the Ticket

Under the heading "Favorite Sons," The Tribune will publish daily a biographical sketch of a prominent presidential or vice presidential candidate whose name figures in the Chicago convention. They are to be homely little sketches, aiming to introduce the man from his human rather than his political side, although politics will enter into them to whatever extent seems necessary to show the lines of development and explain present attitudes relative to national affairs.

SKETCH NO. 7—MURPHY.

TRENTON, N. J., June 15.—The first candidate to be actively pushed by the republican party of his own state for the vice presidential nomination, was Franklin Murphy, former governor of New Jersey.

The Jersey choice for the tall of the ticket is large of physique, constantly wears a sunny smile, and is always scrupulously attired. He is a man of wealth and high tastes, a lover of things beautiful, and is inclined to be luxurious in his habits. While governor he caused to be built adjoining the private executive chamber in the state house a magnificent bathroom at a cost of $10,000, and for this satisfying of a personal whim he invoked upon his head the unfavorable criticism of his political enemies. But it made no difference to Murphy. He had the bath, he enjoyed it, and that was all there was to it.

In keeping with this quality in his nature the ex-governor is a lavish entertainer. The magnificent dinners which he gave, at his own expense, while governor, are still vividly remembered. An invitation to be the governor's guest meant for him who was wise enough to accept, a participation in the choicest morsels of the season and the rarest vintages which money could furnish and ingenuity could suggest. He personally attended to the smallest details of an affair of this kind, his remarkable sense for artistic effect being indelibly stamped upon every feature of the entertainment. One of the most elaborate men in the beautiful Stryker home on West State street, Trenton, in which house the governor made his headquarters while at the capital. At this affair he spared no expense to evolve a dining room replete with splendid color effects and the rarest blooms. He gave a number of dinners and receptions to members of the legislature, and he was the first of the governors of New Jersey to carry out this policy on a large scale.

It was Governor Murphy who was responsible for the building of the present enlarged senate chamber in the capitol. The art employed in this addition was largely his own designing and selection and is pronounced by connoisseurs to be of a high order.

The state house has another heritage of Murphy's artistic temperament in the house of assembly meeting place. Until he decided that the house needed renovation that chamber was more or less of a joke. Murphy determined to have the walls of the chamber in colonial blue and yellow, and although this scheme is not generally regarded as suitable for a legislative hall, it is one of beauty and decidedly appropriate in this state which played so prominent a part in colonial history.

Murphy's home in Newark is magnificent from cellar to roof. Here, of course, he has had free play and has carried out his hobbies in decoration to his heart's content. One of the luxuries he enjoys here is a specially constructed music room, one of the chief characteristics of which is its adaptability to sound effects.

But the love of the beautiful is not, by any means, the only side to Murphy's character. He is intensely practical. He is a politician of no mean calibre and a remarkably successful business man. Returning from the war, a first lieutenant, in 1865, after having smelt powder in many of the great battles and accompanied General Sherman on his famous march to the sea, he laid the foundation of his extensive business as a varnish manufacturer, his firm being known as the Murphy Varnish company. By great energy and devotion to detail Murphy built up a big trade, with branches in several parts of this country and Europe.

In 1892 Murphy took the chairmanship of the state republican committee and distinguished himself by his efficient work in the following campaigns, the direct result of which was the bringing of New Jersey into prominence in the list of republican states. Upon the death of Garret A. Hobart, he was chosen his successor as the New Jersey representative of the national republican committee, and was soon made one of the members of the executive committee. In 1900 President McKinley appointed him a commissioner of the United States to the Paris exposition.

Born of patriotic parentage, his ancestors having fought with distinction in the Colonial wars and in the War of 1812 and he himself having served in the Civil War, Murphy has taken a prominent part in the formation of the patriotic societies of the country. He is a member of the Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the American Revolution, the Loyal Legion and of the Grand Army of the Republic.
